The Communists Triumphant in the Paris Election.

The Revolution Spreading in the Larger French Towns.

Duc D'Aumale Likely to be the Successor of M. Thiers.

Garibaldi to be Arrested if He Appears in France.

Napoleon Pays a Friendly Visit to Queen Victoria.

FRANCE.

Triumph of the Communists in the Paris Election—Revolution Breaking Out in Other Towns—The Government Thought to be Detunct—Duc D'Aumule the Probable Successor of Thiers— Movements of Prominent Officers.

LONDON, March 27.—The Dany News has a special dispatch from Paris stating that the elections passed off quietly, and resulted in an overwhelming Communist majority. The revolutionary authority is completely dominant.

The abdication of Admiral Saisset and the Mayors increases the success of the revolution, which, within a week, will spread to all the large towns, and render the position of the Government in the rural districts untenable.

The Telegraph's special correspondent at Versailles, reports that the Government has ordered the prompt arrest of Gen. Garibald upon his appearance on French soil. Gen. Le Flo retires from the Ministry of War, and will be succeeded by Gen. Clermbault, a returned prisoner from Germany. It is generally thought the Government is defunct, and a rumor is current that M. Thiers will be forced to resign, and be succeeded by the Duc D'Aumale. M. Thiers is credited with the remark to his friends that when the Government has 100,000 troops in which it can trust, an attack will be made upon Paris. It is believed the capital will be removed to Tours.

The Daily News' special dispatch from Brussels says that Marshal BAZAINE is about to leave for France, and that Marshal LE BŒUF will go to the Hague.

LONDON, March 27—9 o'clock P. M.—Gen.

FAIDHERBE has been summoned to Versailles.